Washington City Advises. DAVIS SHOWS HIS HAND.

Washington, October 13.—Logan offered a resolution to elect Senator Davis President of the Senate which went over until to-morrow under the rules. Senator Davis was in his seat and made no motion to object. It is now definitely known he will accept and that his election will be accomplished by his omission to vote. The Republicans had assurances of his acceptance before nominating him.

DIPLOMATIC CALLERS. The members of the diplomatic corps called in a body upon the President to-day, and were formally presented by Secretary Blaine.

INTERNAL REVENUE STOREKEEPER. Samuel C. Bruce was to-day appointed Internal Revenue Storekeeper for the first district of California.

PENDELTON TAKES IT BACK. Pendleton has, upon the advice of Bayard and other Democrats, while in the executive session, withdrawn the objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution to elect Davis.

SOME OF 'EM DON'T LIKE IT. Some Democratic Senators think that Pendleton's action in withdrawing the motion to let the resolution electing Davis, lie over, unwise. Had it been deferred until to-morrow, Bayard would have had an opportunity to fill the vacancies in the Committees. Under Edmund's resolution adopted this morning, he could have given the Democrats a majority on the Finance, Military and Judiciary Committees and still been able to provide for new Senators on inferior Committees. Other Senators saw that Bayard would have been too delicate to take advantage of the delay, knowing that his tenure was brief. No more cautions are to be called. The Senators all agree that the session will end in a few days.

THE SENATE AMUSED. There was something in the election of Davis which amused the Senate. When Harris, in the chair, appointed Bayard, just deposited after so short an incumbency, to escort Davis to the chair, the smile that had played over the Senate broke into a moderate laugh. Davis joined in the laugh and was escorted to the chair in apparent good humor. When Davis returned thanks, Edmunds offered a motion thanking Bayard for the impartiality displayed by him as President. This seemed to strike the Senate as a satire and more laughter ensued. Edmunds saw he had been misunderstood and rebuked the Senators then said he offered the motion in all sincerity, and Mr. Bayard was entitled to thanks because he had occupied the chair at a time when partisan or partial feelings could have been made and would have worked injustice. He insisted that Bayard had been fair in all things and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

INGERSOLL WILL MAKE HIS SPEECH. In the Criminal Court to-day Judge Cox announced that to-morrow morning's session would be taken up with the argument of Col. Bob Ingersoll, counsel for Gen. Brady, on the motion to quash information recently filed by attorneys for the Government against Gen. Brady and others. Ingersoll desires to leave the city after he has spoken. The hearing will be continued, said the Judge, until next week, when Bliss, Brewster, and others representing the Government can be present.

CONFIRMED. The Senate, in executive session to-day, confirmed the nomination of Hannibal Hamlin as Minister to Spain.

GOOD ACT. President Arthur ordered that all departments be closed to-morrow at 12, that the employees may have an opportunity to participate in the reception of the French visitors.

ARTHUR AND THE YORKTOWN CENTENNIAL. President Arthur has determined that he will not send nominations for Cabinet until after the Yorktown celebration. He said to Senators this afternoon that he would be gratified if the Senate would not take any early steps toward adjournment. He added, of course, he would have to go to Yorktown himself and would be pleased to have all the Senate go. When asked further as to his wishes, he suggested that the Senate take a recess of several days to attend the Centennial and do honor to the French and German visitors. He added that he would not detain the Senate many days after their return. As the original programme of the Centennial and of honors to foreign visitors contemplated the present Cabinet and were partially arranged by them, the President wants to carry it out. Therefore he wants to keep the Cabinet together until after the Centennial.

DAVID DAVIS DISAPPOINTED THE DEMOCRATS. There is apparent disappointment among the Democratic Senators at Senator Davis' election. They generally believed up to the last moment that he would not accept. Some critics have pretty severely saying he has virtually abandoned his much boasted independent position. A Democratic Senator who generally reflects his party sentiment accurately, says Judge Davis' ambition was tempted by the possibility of reaching the Presidential chair, and that overcame his usually good judgment.

THE SENATE.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Immediately after the reading of the journal a number of nominations were received from the President, including among others Hannibal Hamlin for minister to Spain; Walker Blaine third Assistant Secretary of State; Mark S. Brewer, Consul General at Berlin; Consuls—Alexander Jordan, of Pennsylvania, Algiers; Edmund Johnson, New Jersey, Pekin; Arthur H. Harrison, New Jersey, Santander; Winfield Scott Bird, Alabama, Lagunayara; Robt. T. Holley, Vermont, Barbados; James W. Silver, Indiana, Cape Town; Henry S. Lasar, Missouri, Port Stanley; D. C. Alexander, Indiana, Fifth Auditor of the Treasury; Benjamin E. Davis, Massachusetts, Deputy Fourth Auditor of the Treasury; Jacob H. Elam, New Hampshire, Auditor of the Treasury. Postoffice Department. Robert F. Crowell, Minnesota, Deputy Auditor of the Treasury; Henry A. Kennedy, Maine, Collector of Customs at Waldoboro, Maine; Thomas M. Broadwater, Mississippi, Collector of Customs at Vicksburg; Wm. G. Morris, California, Collector of Customs for Alaska; Howard M. Kutchin, Wisconsin, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District of Wisconsin.

Senator Lamar offered a resolution requesting the President to advise the Senate whether any action had been taken by the government since the last session of the Senate toward protecting the rights and interests of the United States in the project of the Inter-Oceanic Canal. Tabled for future action.

Senator Edmunds called up his resolution continuing the standing committees as constituted last session.

Senator Garland offered an amendment providing that only the following committees shall be continued: Foreign Relations, Finance, Commerce, Military Affairs, Judiciary, Post Offices and Post Roads, Public Lands, Pensions and Indian Affairs. He contended that the committees named were the only ones that would have any work during the special session.

Senator Edmunds opposed the amendment. There were committees not provided for which in his opinion would be necessary to perform the work of the session. He instanced the committee on Privileges and Elections as one which should be organized. There was on the table the petition presented by the Senator from New Jersey—McPherson—said to seriously affect the right of the Senators from New York to seats in this body. Then there was the Committee on Railroads which might have work to do. It was known from public reports that there had been an important officer suspended for some supposed failure of duty and by law it was required that such suspension should be reported to the Senate. The Committee on Contingent Expenses was also a necessary committee.

Senator Garland stated he would modify the amendment so as to continue the Committees of Privileges, and Elections and contingent. He thought it would then include all the Committees necessary to organize at this time.

Senator Garland's amendment was rejected; yeas 35, nays 37; Davis, of Illinois, and Mahone voting with the Republicans.

Senator Edmund's resolution was then adopted. Yeas 37, nays 35.

The standing committees are therefore continued as constituted at the last session and the President pro tem. is authorized to fill vacancies which may exist. As soon as the results was announced Senator Logan offered a resolution for the election of Davis Davis, Senator from Illinois, as President pro tem. of the Senate.

Senator Pendleton asked that the resolution lay over one day under the rules. So ordered.

The Executive session followed. At one o'clock p. m. the doors reopened and the Senate again met in open session.

Senator Pendleton stated that upon consultation with the Senators on his side of the chamber he had concluded to withdraw his objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution proposing the election of Senator David Davis, President pro tem. of the Senate.

The Senate then proceeded considering the action on the resolution.

Senator Jones, of Florida, opposed the adoption of the resolution in a brief speech taking the ground that the tenure of office of the President pro tem. is during the absence of the Vice-President of the United States.

A vote was taken on Logan's resolution resulting in its adoption. Yeas 36, nays 34; Bayard and Davis, of Illinois, not voting.

The chair, Senator Harris, then appointed Senators Bayard and Anthony a committee to escort the President pro tem. elect to the chair. On taking the chair Davis made a brief speech saying that the high honor conferred on him came without any exertion on his part. If the compliment had carried any party obligation with it he should have felt constrained to decline it.

Senator Kellogg's resolution calling for papers in the case of Vincenzo Rebellio was adopted.

A resolution for striking a medal in honor of James A. Garfield, late President of the United States, was referred to the Committee on Library. Adjourned.

FIRE AND DEATH.

Philadelphia, October 13.—Charles H. Londerberger's mill, owned by Joseph Harvey, 1711 Randolph street, burned tonight. The fire broke out about 9:45. The neighbors rushed to the buildings and saw operatives at the windows on the third and fourth floors. They called to the girls not to jump as a ladder would be brought, but several of the girls sprang from the windows. The shrieks of the people in the building where escape was cut off were heartrending. Most of them jumped to the sidewalk and a few escaped by the elevator rope. It is believed that half those injured will die. At least twenty persons were injured. One girl is reported killed outright by striking on the steps. Some are thought to be buried in the ruins. The fire is supposed to have originated from sparks from an electric light firing a lot of material on the second floor.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

The fire at Londerberger's mill, last night, originated in the finishing room on the second floor and spread through the building with amazing rapidity. About forty-five hands, twelve of whom were girls at work on this floor, a majority were engaged in the spinning and weaving departments on the upper floor. The wooden stairways at either end of the building were soon ablaze and the bridge connecting the building with another mill was shut off from approach by fire-proof doors and in the absence of any fire escape a panic ensued among men and women confined in the building. They rushed to the windows and appealed frantically to the crowd below to save them. It was proposed by the crowd to form squares in the street and catch the men and girls as they leaped out but before anything could be done a young woman leaped from the fifth story. It seemed that every bone in her body was broken for she never spoke or breathed after striking the pavement. After this the imprisoned people seemed to become frenzied and though the crowd outside sought to encourage them by shouting that help would shortly be there, they began jumping from the windows like sheep. When the firemen were able to enter the building they found, on the third floor, the bodies of two females burned almost to a crisp and a man's body badly scorched and dead, but before they could search further the fourth floor with its heavy machinery came crashing through and they barely escaped with their lives. The firemen were compelled to desist from their labors because the floors had gone through to the ground together with the machinery and charred wood. What remained of the unfortunate operatives, ten or twelve in number, were mingled together in an unrecognizable mass which was seething and sending out columns of steam as cold water was poured on it. The following is a list of victims as far as can be ascertained now: Dead—Annie Brady, Mary Kelly, Henry Morgan, an unknown girl who died at the hospital, two unknown girls aged about thirteen and eighteen respectively and an unknown German were dead at the morgue.

KOKOMO CONFLAGRATION.

Kokomo, Colorado, October 13.—At about half past six this evening a fire started in the lamp room of the Summit House caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp. The flames spread with great rapidity until at about 10 o'clock not one building of Main street and the business portion of Kokomo remained standing. About eighty families are homeless and destitute. Loss about $400,000 at least; insurance very light. The fire department came over from Leadville with a special under the management of Superintendent Griffin. They crossed the Continental Divide, a distance of twenty-two miles, in forty-five minutes but were too late to give aid. There are not twenty houses left standing. Whiskey is free and hundreds of men are now infuriated. Considerable excitement was caused by the fire when it reached the powder magazines and terrific explosions occurred momentarily. The fire will probably smoulder for weeks.

PATRICK FORD'S ADDRESS TO THE AMERICAN LAND LEAGUE.

New York, October 13.—Patrick Ford has issued an address to the Land Leagues of America anent the arrest of Parnell in which he says: Irishmen must restrain their impulses. Reason, not passion, should rule the hour. Never did the Land League have a better opportunity to manifest its moral power than now. Never did it become the duty of the Irish people to exhibit the virtues of self-possession and obedience to the Land League more than now. Through enlightenment and organization the people will assuredly come into possession of their inheritance. Much has been accomplished looking to this end. Gladstone himself openly confessed that the Land League was the only government in Ireland now with any moral force behind it. Hence he makes war upon it. We present arms to the majesty of ideas which are invulnerable and immortal. No man who believes in the superiority of mind over brute matter can entertain a doubt respecting the final issue.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.

New Orleans, October 13.—In a shooting affray between Chief of Detectives Thos. Devereaux and Detective Mike Hennessy both men were badly wounded and Devereaux is reported dead. It is believed that Hennessy can't recover.

A NEGRO HOPED INTO ETERNITY.

Charleston, S. C., October 13.—Jack Williams, a negro convicted at Orangeburg, South Carolina, Saturday, for an outrage upon a white girl aged 11, was taken from jail about two o'clock this morning and hung.

Trans-Oceanic Cablegrams.

PARNELL ARRESTED.

Dublin, October 13.—Parnell was arrested this morning at Kings Bridge Railroad Station, on his way to attend the Kildare Convention. It is not yet ascertained what offense was charged.

REASONS OF ARREST.

Parnell was arrested on two warrants signed by Foster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, charging him with inciting the people to intimidate others from paying their just rent and with intimidating tenants taking the benefit of the land act. Parnell was taken to Kilmalham jail.

IROQUOIS BEATEN.

London, October 4.—At Newmarket, to-day, the race for the champion stakes was won by Ben D'Or. Scobell, second; Iroquois, third.

HOW THE ARREST WAS EFFECTED.

Dublin, October 13.—Parnell was arrested to-day at Morrison's hotel provisions to starting for the Kildare Convention. Inspector Malone called this morning and sent up to Parnell, who was in bed that he would like to see him. The hotel porter returned with word that he would be happy to see the Inspector as soon as he was dressed. Soon after Malone with Detective Sheridan went up stairs. Parnell met him pleasantly and asked,

"DO YOU INTEND TO ARREST ME?"

"Yes," replied Malone handing him a warrant still wet with Foster's signature, for the Chief Secretary had only returned from London by the morning mail at 8 o'clock. Parnell then glanced over the warrant and said, "all right."

He put on his hat and walked down stairs with the two policemen. A cab was in waiting and the three entered.

KILMALHAM PRISON.

cried Malone to the driver and they drove off with four other police in citizens' clothes in another carriage. On arriving at Kilmalham, Parnell was at once assigned a cell. There was no demonstration as no one knew of the arrest beyond the parties concerned.

WAVE OF INDIGNATION.

Dublin, noon, October 13.—The condition of things at this hour is awful. The wave of indignation gathers force as moments fly, and there is no telling when it may break or what will be the consequences. The Land League executive committee are at this moment sitting with John Dillon in the chair. The worst is being prepared for. It is rumored that the government will take military possession of the Land League headquarters and proceed to the utmost extremity of brute force to repress the organization. Calm but deliberate and decisive action can be looked for from men at the lead. If men of America stand firmly by us there will be no fears of the ultimate result.

KEEP COOL!

Boston, October 13.—P. A. Collins, President of the Land League of the United States, immediately upon receipt of the news of Parnell's arrest, sent the following cablegram to the executive committee in Dublin:

Boston, Mass., October 13.—Sexton, Land League, Dublin: Parnell's arrest is Gladstone's blunder. Parnell in prison must be of the strongest force if the League continues his policy. Stand firm and keep cool. The British game has always been to crush agitation in Ireland by provoking civil war. Defeat it! Keep on the old line. Be patient as you have been bold. The American League will redouble its work and stand by you to the end.

OHIO LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN.

Columbus, October 13.—Returns tonight indicate the election of twenty Republican and thirteen Democratic Senators. Two districts included in the above are still in doubt, one being claimed by the Republicans and the other conceded to the Democrats. It is thought that the Republicans will have from thirty to thirty-five majority in the House. Should the official figures verify the above the Republicans will have a larger majority in both branches of the General Assembly than they had in the last body.

$339,093.

New York, October 13.—The subscription to the Garfield fund has reached $339,093.

THE WALK.

And still the long walk goes on, and Madame DuPree has not weakened a particle. She takes but short rests, and at the end of four days, having walked three hundred and thirty-seven miles and over, steps as glibly as ever. Yesterday morning shortly after midnight, Billy Foster came on the track. He walks easily and takes long strides. At nine o'clock last night he had covered 75 miles. Madame DuPree's score stood 335, leaving the balance in favor of the latter over all competitors of 37 miles. Madame DuPree rested from midnight until 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and both walkers rested for breakfast from 7 to 8, and at dinner from 1 to 2, and at supper from 6 to 7. Young Frank DuPree walked a mile last night in eight and one half minutes. A goodly number were in attendance in spite of the rain. The match is getting more interesting each day.
